

Cultural Resources Management Services

Epsilon Systems staff has depth of experience providing support to various clients in navigating the nuances of the Section 106/110 process of the National Historic Preservation Act (NHPA) in addition to ancillary studies related to the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA). Our team of Secretary of the Interior (SOI) qualified professionals excel in finding time sensitive and cost-effective solutions to all phases of cultural resource management (CRM) inclusive of:

Trust Epsilon Systems for Arizona Cultural Resources Management

- Cultural Resources Surveys and Assessments
- Section 106 and 110 Consultations
- Mitigation Planning and Archaeological Monitoring
- Archival Research
- Historic American Building Survey (HABS) and Historic American Engineering Record (HAER) Documentation
- LiDAR Scanning

Environmental Services

Contact: Dan Martinez, M.A., RPA
(303) 748-5372
dmartinez@epsilonsystems.com

Epsilon Systems currently provides services for private and public clients, coordination with various federal and state agencies as well as tribal coordination in compliance with associated regulations.

We specialize in all phases and aspects of cultural resources and related studies. We provide the depth of professional staff required for successful execution of all contracts. Our team of professionals can meet the needs of small, large, and at times, concurrent work orders and contracts.

